Course Description and Learning Objectives: Marketing creates business value by designing and launching new products, growing existing products, and building strong brands. To this end, marketers think in terms of “STP”: segmentation, targeting, and positioning. Then they decide on the “4Ps” of marketing: product, price, place, and promotion. Based on this framework of STP/4Ps, this course will introduce you to the principles and practices of marketing. You will learn Marketing Strategy, Marketing Research, Segmentation & Targeting, Positioning, Product Management, Pricing, Marketing Communications, Distribution, Platform Marketing, and Global Marketing. In sum, you will learn the enduring concepts (e.g., PLC, STP, 4Ps, 5Cs) and the emerging issues (e.g., digital marketing, omnichannel retailing, platform marketing, marketing and technology).

Upon completion of this course, you will have knowledge to:

1. Understand the key elements of marketing strategy
2. Know the tools to segment customers and differentiate from competitors
3. Define and implement a marketing strategy

The core course aims to broaden and deepen your understanding of marketing.

Class Courtesy and Etiquette

All lectures are mandatory:

Attendance will be taken every class. Missing classes WILL have an impact on your final grade

All assignments have to be submitted on time

Missing to do so will result in losing all the points for this particular assignment.

No make-up quiz, assignment or homework will be organized

Arrive on time

It is expected that all class members will treat each other with respect and dignity.

- It is not acceptable to insult, harass, or demean any member of the class.
- Professional business behavior should be modeled in the classroom.

Statement on Accommodation

UC Davis is committed to educational equity in the academic setting, and in serving a diverse student body. All students who are interested in learning about how disabilities are accommodated can visit the Student Disability Center (SDC). If you are a student who requires academic accommodations, please contact the SDC directly at sdc@ucdavis.edu or 530-752-3184. If you receive an SDC Letter of Accommodation, submit it to your instructor for each course as soon as possible, at least within the first two weeks of a course.

Academic Integrity

All students who take this course are governed by the Univ. of California's standards of ethical conduct for students. These sections set forth the responsibilities of students and faculty to maintain a spirit of academic honesty and integrity. It is essential that you are aware of this code of conduct and the disciplinary actions that may be taken in the event of a violation. A copy of the Code of Academic Conduct may be found in your student handbook or at <https://ossja.ucdavis.edu/code-academic-conduct>. Further details may be obtained from the GSM Associate Dean or the Office of Judicial Affairs.

COVID-19

The pandemic brings uncertainty and unexpected stress. As your teacher, I understand that you may face some obstacles in meeting your academic goals. Your safety, health, and well-being are important. Please be aware that UC Davis provides a wide range of remote services such as counseling, tutoring, academic advising, and community building and engagement for its students. If you feel your class performance is affected, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am committed to helping you to meet your learning objectives in this course. See also <https://campusready.ucdavis.edu/>

Rights and Responsibilities

All participants in the course, instructor and students, are expected to follow the UC Davis Principles of Community, which includes affirmation of the right of freedom of expression, and rejection of discrimination. The right to express points-of-view without fear of retaliation or censorship is a cornerstone of academic freedom. A diversity of opinions with respectful disagreement and informed debate enriches learning. However, in this course, any expression or disagreement should adhere to the obligations we have toward each other to build and maintain a climate of mutual respect and caring.

You are expected to take UC Davis's Code of Academic Conduct as seriously as we do. You were given this code of conduct with explicit explanations of violations (e.g. plagiarism, cheating, unauthorized collaboration, etc.) and your responsibilities in regard to them during orientation, and you signed a statement affirming that you understand it. Academic conduct violations will not be tolerated, and your instructor will not hesitate to turn violators over to Student Judicial Affairs. If you are uncertain about what constitutes an academic conduct violation, please refer to the code linked above, contact your instructor, or refer to the Office of Student Judicial Affairs.

All material in the course that is not otherwise subject to copyright is the copyright of the course instructor and should be considered the instructor's intellectual property.

Safety and Emergency Preparedness

UC Davis has many resources to help in case of emergency or crisis. While reviewing campus Emergency Information, you may want to register for UC Davis Warn Me and Aggie Alert, which will give you timely information and instructions about emergencies and situations on campus that affect your safety. If there is an emergency in the classroom or in non-Davis locations, follow the instructions of your instructor.

Student Wellness

You deserve respect, and are encouraged to practice self-care so that you can remain focused and engaged; that might mean getting a drink of water, leaving to use the restroom, taking a moment to stretch, or doing something else you need to do to take care of yourself. Please be respectful of others by minimizing distractions when practicing self-care – especially in lab, field or studio settings where safety is imperative.

College life can be overwhelming at times but know that you are not alone if you're feeling stressed. For many of us, systems of oppression such as racism, sexism, heterosexism or cissexism may cause additional stress. Please remember to practice self-care and reach out for support if and when you need it.

You can visit Virtual UC Davis to find resources related to health and well-being, academics, basic needs (food and housing) and more.
